

Nordic sister cities meeting May 7-9, 2018 in Eskilstuna

A warm welcome to Eskilstuna!

Programme

May 7th

Afternoon - Arrival at Eskilstuna (Each sister city arrange for their own tickets and transport to and from Eskilstuna.)

We have booked room for you at: Élite Stadshotellet, Eskilstuna,
Hamngatan 11, 632 20 Eskilstuna

Website: <https://www.elite.se/en/hotels/eskilstuna/stadshotellet/>

7 p.m.: Dinner at Élite Stadshotellet, Eskilstuna (i.e. the same hotel where you will be staying) where Lord Mayor Mrs. Ann-Sofie Wågström, Vice Mayor Mr. Lars-Olof Lundkvist and Vice Mayor Mr. Faisal Hassan will be welcoming you.

May 8th

9 a.m.: Reception at the City hall, Fristadstorget, with coffee/tea and refreshments.

Approx. 10 am: Guided bus tour – departure from the City hall

We visit the following places:

- Eskilstuna Logistikpark/Eskilstuna Logistics Park:
Eskilstuna Logistics and Establishment AB concept is to offer sustainable and cost-effective establishment solutions for business, logistics, data centre and industrial operations.

- Sundbyholms slott/Sundbyholm Castle:
Sundbyholm Castle built by Carl Carlsson (Gyllenhielm), son of Duke Charles (later King Charles IX). He also founded an ironworks and two glassworks and Sweden's first elementary school at Sundby church. Today Sundbyholm is a wonderful setting for conferences, corporate parties, good dinners and romantic castle wedding.
- Lunch break at Sundbyholms slott/Sundbyholm Castle
- Retuna Återbruksgalleria/Retuna Recycling Galleria, including coffee break:
Retuna Recycling Galleria is Sweden's, and perhaps the world's first shopping mall that will take advantage of things that need new homes. The renovation, repair and creative reuse may give things new life and can be resold. Retuna calls it recycling - a climate friendly way of doing business.
- STIGA Sports Arena and Munktellbadet/The Munktell Bath:
STIGA Sports Arena Eskilstuna is a modern eco building for sports, concerts and exhibitions. Next to the arena, the Munktell Bath is situated, which is a very modern bathhouse with indoor swimming pool, family spa, wellness and fitness centre and cafés.

Approx. 5 pm: We walk back to the City Centre, from The Munktell Bath. Approximately a 10 minutes' walk.

7 pm: Dinner at Munktellmuseet.

May 9th
